BigScaler Open in Lostallo

The 2012 Easter Weekend will be the date to be at Lostallo racetrack in Switzerland when the first ever BigScaler Open take place there from Friday the 06.04.2012 to Monday the 09.04.2012. Invited are Large Scale drivers with their Touring Cars, FI, Truck and off course Mini Cooper or GT cars as well.

We do NOT do a race

The BigScaler open are a friendly gathering of the entire Large scale Scene just to celebrate yourself and your car without any though about competition.

Lostallo racetrack is well known as one of the worlds most famous and nicest facilities. But also the surrounding and nature around is just fabulous. The late April date almost guarantees nice weather conditions with to be expected temperatures of around 25° Celsius.

Be part of the real Season Opening 2012. We do strictly limit this event to 70 drivers, to guarantee you a maximum of track time.

What do we offer to you?

- Free practice using the worlds best rc/car race track
- 80 minutes of guaranteed track time plus 2 hours open track for everybody
- Manufacturers Workshops
- Sponsors special offers
- Legendary Lostallo Aperitif
- Stress less atmosphere, NO race stress
- Pre-Reserved Pit space

How to take part?

- The price to take part is just € 39,90 Euro, which is to be payed with your entry.
- Entry is possible through 'myrcm' or by mail to frag@clark-s.de.
- We like to kindly point out to you that we cannot refund the entry fee if you do not attend. Only if you let us know in time and we are able to fill up the entry list to the maximum of 70 drivers may this lead to a refund.
- Payment can be done by bank transfer or easily by PayPal to frag@clark-s.de. (If PayPal please send it as 'money owed personally' then there is no deduction by PayPal for their service).
- With your payment you will be able to choose your pit space. This is on a 'first come' basis.
- You are welcome to attend to the track earlier than Friday. The club will charge you for the extra days upfront as well as extra days after the event.
- For camping reservation we kindly ask you to contact the Lostallo club. You will find all information at www.mrtm.ch.
- You do NOT need an EFRA License to take part but you necessarily need to show up with a valid national license for insurance purposes.

Provisional Time Schedule 6 Groups each of 12 Pilots

The maximum of Pilots is 70. Every Pilot receives a guarantee of 80 minutes track time every day (excepting Sunday-see time table) plus the possibility to use the track for another 120 minutes during the free practice time.

If less than the maximum accepted drivers attend, the time schedule will be modified to optimize and increase every drivers track time.

The driving direction is flexible and can vary from group to group. Feel free to choose a Group that uses your preferred driving direction. The organizers do not specify any driving direction.
